

WORKSHOP

UNLIKELY ARCHIVES

Reading Space through
Texts, Documents, & Images

Dr. Divya Ravindranath

Assistant Professor

*School of Human Development
Indian Institute of Human Settlement*

Dr. Nidhin Donald

Assistant Professor

*School of Interwoven Arts & Sciences
KREA University*

Dr. Jo Hemlatha

Fellow

*Department of Anthropology
London School of Economics & Political Science*

Speaker-led sessions and a collaborative workshop exploring space through fiction, legal documents, and visual materials.

Application-based participation | Certificates upon successful completion

12th September, 2026

1 PM - 4 PM IST

Online (Zoom)

UNLIKELY ARCHIVES

Reading Space through Texts, Documents, & Images

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

About Workshop

How do we understand a place beyond what is immediately visible? Unlikely Archives explores creative methods of reading spaces through fiction, documents, images, and other overlooked materials.

Workshop Format

- Speaker-led sessions introducing diverse approaches to spatial inquiry
- Collaborative discussions and exercises exploring methods of reading space
- Participant engagement with texts, documents, and visual materials

Participation Details

- A cohort of 24 participants will be selected based on applications
- Students enrolled in non-metropolitan institutes & belonging to marginalised backgrounds are especially encouraged to apply
- Participation certificates will be provided

Application Deadline

- 17 August 2026 | 11:00 PM IST
- Apply via the QR code or the link:
<https://forms.gle/ZKcG9M9MToq5djfX7>

